

Joanna Gaines Unveils Highly Anticipated Magnolia Home Kid's Furniture Collection

Orland Park, IL, December 2, 2016 – It should come as no surprise that Joanna Gaines and the Magnolia brand have been a bit busy this year. Riding a wave of accomplishments, from the launch of her own home furnishings brand to reaching the New York Times Bestseller list with a new autobiography, The Magnolia Story, everything Joanna Gaines seems to touch turns to success.

The newest success looks to be the fun-loving kind with the unveiling of the highly anticipated Magnolia Home children's furniture collection. The Magnolia Kids line features the signature Magnolia color palate and Gaines' vintage styling built into a cute French Inspired Cameo Armoire, Farmhouse Kid's Haven Table and Bench, and a French Inspired Sister's Upholstered Bed.

In addition to her latest line of kid's furniture, Gaines has also debuted Magnolia Home brand design accessories, rugs and a line of interior paint with hues inspired by her hit home remodeling show.

Magnolia Kids captures the idyllic imagination of a child while featuring Gaines' distinct use of vintage elements to deliver furniture that will remain timeless and functional through the years. Her pieces are kid-friendly, practical, and designed with purpose to create meaningful spaces where kids can learn and grow for years to come.

There is a real following for Joanna's unique style and it has transferred over to her new kid's line of furniture with amazing results," said Darvin Furniture Co-Owner Marty Darvin.
